

integrity - innovation - quality

NETWORK ANALYST

Black Creek Integrated Systems is a leading national supplier of integrated electronic security systems for the correctional industry. As a result of our experience and reputation in the corrections industry, Black Creek's technology has become a standard nationwide for many architectural and engineering firms specializing in criminal justice work.

Black Creek is seeking a qualified Network Analyst to work on the Engineering/R&D team.

Essential Duties & Responsibilities

- Contribute to the integration, documentation, and testing of network components
- Assist in quality assurance testing
- Provide day-to-day support for Internal IT systems
- Provide support to Design team for networking concepts and architecture
- Provide support to Installation and Service teams as required
- Limited travel for on-site installation support
- Perform related work as required

Qualifications

- Working knowledge of Windows Operating Systems including both desktop and server families
- Working knowledge of OSI Model, major networking protocol architectures, and security concepts
- Working knowledge of PC, server, and networking hardware support
- Working knowledge of serial communication and CLI interfaces
- Working knowledge of Microsoft Office
- Strong analytical and problem solving skills
- Ability to work with members of a team
- Strong communication skills with ability to understand and articulate ideas verbally and in writing
- Experience with SonicWall security appliances will improve candidacy
- Experience with Wireless Infrastructure will improve candidacy

Education, Certifications, Licenses

- Associates or Bachelor's Degree in a technical field
- Relevant work experience will improve candidacy
- Networking Certifications will improve candidacy

Working at Black Creek

In addition to offering competitive rates, we offer a generous benefit package that includes:

- 401(k) retirement plan
- Vacation/personal time program
- Paid holidays
- Health & dental insurance
- Life insurance
- Long Term Disability insurance
- Tuition reimbursement program
- Office located in Birmingham metro-area
- Work week that allows Friday afternoons off