

BLACK CREEK INTEGRATED SYSTEMS CORP.

Integrity. Innovation. Quality.

Entry Level Programmer/Developer

Black Creek Integrated Systems is a leading national supplier of integrated electronics security systems for the correctional industry. As a result of our 40+ years' experience and reputation in the corrections industry, Black Creek's technology has become a standard nationwide for many architectural and engineering firms specializing in criminal justice work.

We are seeking a qualified programmer/developer to work on the Criminal Justice Applications Group team.

Essential Duties & Responsibilities

- Perform coding duties within a specified time frame
- Provide assistance with software support and troubleshooting through interaction with the customer
- Maintain proper coding practices and documentation, even under deadlines
- Perform software quality assurance
- Additional duties as required by Management

Qualifications

- Strong theoretical foundation in computer programming
- Strong analytical and problem solving skills
- Ability to work with members of a team
- Strong communication skills with ability to understand and articulate ideas verbally and in writing
- Strong understanding of object oriented programming
- Experience in HTML5, JavaScript, CSS, web development technologies, and Microsoft development technologies such as the .NET framework and SQL Server will improve candidacy

Education, Certifications, Licenses

- Bachelor's degree in Computer Science
- Microsoft Certification will improve candidacy

Working at Black Creek

In addition to offering competitive salary rates, we offer a generous benefit package that includes:

- 401(k) retirement plan
- Vacation/personal time program
- Paid holidays
- Health & dental insurance
- Life insurance
- Long Term Disability insurance
- Tuition reimbursement program
- Convenient office located in Birmingham metro-area
- Work week that allows Friday afternoons off